INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. These include receipts for Treasury warrants and miscellaneous correspondence, 1906-11. The original of these records is in RG 123; a copy is in RG 75.

Some related records in Records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, RG 75, have been reproduced as NARS Microfilm Publication T496, Census Roll, 1835, of the Cherokee Indians East of the Mississippi and Index to the Roll. Also in RG 75 are the classified subject files of the Bureau.

Records Relating to Enrollment of Eastern Cherokees by Guion Miller, 1908-10, M685, contains the general index to Eastern Cherokee applications, 2 volumes; the report submitted by Guion Miller, May 28, 1909, 10 volumes; the roll of Eastern Cherokees, May 28, 1909; the report on exceptions filed, January 5, 1910; the supplemental roll of Eastern Cherokees, January 5, 1910; transcripts of testimony, February, 1908-March 1909, 10 volumes; various indexes and rolls of Eastern Cherokee Indians, 1851, 1854, and 1884; and miscellaneous notes and drafts.

Additional records relating to the enrollment of Eastern Cherokee Indians are in Records of the Office of the Secretary of the Interior, Record Group 48.

These records were prepared for filming by Jestine Turner and William D. Grover, who also prepared these introductory remarks.

Dear Sir:

43768

Answering your letter of October 13, 1909, you are informed that I am unable to give you any information corroborating the claim of Alice Beaver of Unaka, North Carolina, on behalf of five minor children of whom she claims that Manco Murphy is the father. The only Manco Murphy on our Census Roll is about 18 years of age. An Indian named Joseph Manco Murphy who was omitted from the roll has submitted an application and the Indian Council, on September 4, 1909, passed a resolution recommending his enrollment.

Very respectfully,

Dear sir:

I have your letter of June 10th 1909 in which you state that you on May 28th reported my application #24401 for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund should be rejected.

I judge that you were not given sufficient data on which my claim was based and I am now able to supply that data.

My grandmother was Julia (Clويد) Hughes, aged 28 years in 1835.

My mother was Rebecca Hughes, aged 12 years in 1851.

If you have<sup>a</sup> blanks to better systematize the data you require, I would be glad if you will furnish it.

Let me hear from you at once and any further information necessary to establish the genuineness of my claim as to my Cherokee ancestry, I feel quite sure that I will be able to prove beyond question.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to refer you to my application to participate in the Eastern Cherokee payment. My mother, Mrs. Josie C. Keeler, of Bartlesville, Okla., together with the other members of their family, have received their cards to participate in this payment, but up to the present time I have not received any card, and my application was regularly filed and proof made the same as my mother's.

I have two children-namely: Catherine G. Morton and Asa T. Morton, ages 8 and two years respectively.

I would thank you for your early consideration in this matter and a reply. My post office address is Bartlesville, Okla.

Yours sincerely,

Mary A. Willis, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:--

My name is Mary A. Willis. I live at Anderson, Tenn. I was born in Jackson County, Ala. in 1852. I claim through my mother and her mother and father both. My mother died in 1859, and was about 25 years old. She was born in Jackson County, Ala. My grandfather through whom I claim was born in Va. I don't know where my grandmother was born. I always understood they came from East Tennessee. My grandparents and my mother were recognized as white people, of course. My great grandfather, Macklin Cross, and my grandmother, Mary Cross lived with the tribe. I have just been taught that I was Indian. I don't know to what tribe of Indians I belong. ~~ix~~ ~~ix~~ My great grandfather and grandmother lived with the Indians, but I don't know where and with what tribe. My grandparents and my mother never got any money or land from the Government as I ever heard of. I don't know whether my grandmother and great grandfather ever took part in any tribal proceedings. I never heard of my mother or great grandparents being enrolled with the Indians. I don't remember any Indian names of my ancestors. My grandmother Mary Cross, had a brother named Charles Cross. Macklin Cross's wife was Mary. Her maiden name was Hall. In 1882 I was living in Stevenson, Ala. I did not hear of any enrollment in 1882. I made application this time because I saw the advertisement in the paper.

Testimony taken in case # 24478, Mary A. Willis.

Personally appeared before me, Charles H. Bradley, ~~Special~~ Assistant to Special Commissioner, U. S. Court of Claims

William Hayes being first duly sworn, deposes and says.
My name is William Hayes. I was born Stecoy Cove, Cherokee Nation, N. C. I will be 98 years old in October. I know Mary A. Willis. I knew her mother and her grandparents.
~~xxxxxx~~ I knew her great grandfather, Macklin Cross. He ~~xxxxxx~~ was a party Cherokee Indian. He was recognized as a quarteroon Cherokee. He took part in tribal matters. If he ever got any land or money from the Govt. I never heard of it.
He got his Indian blood from his father. He did not vote.
They did not hold any elections there. I don't know whether he took part in any tribal matters. I expect he did.
I lived with Macklin Cross until I was 14 years old. We always dressed like Indians. Wore buckskin trousers. Ridge was our Chief. Ross was the chief of some other settlement near.
My father and I lived in the Cherokee Nation until I was about 14 or 15 years old. He moved down in Tennessee. We often went back there to see them. Macklin Cross stayed about one and a half years after I left. He left there at the time of the Treaty.
He did not take part in that Treaty as I know of. I do not know whether his father signed it. I never heard of them getting any money or land from the Government at that time. Macklin Cross' father was named Macklin Cross. They mixed right smart in the Cherokee Nation. I did not mix much with the old folks so I was not ~~xxx~~ know old Macklin Cross very well. Macklin Cross moved down to Seven Pond, Tenn, and stayed about a year, and then moved to Alabama. After he left the tribe, he did not live with the Indians but the white people, because there were no Indians to live with. I never heard any thing about them Macklin Cross and his father, ever being enrolled.
I have made an application. Also my children, Mary J. Bean, Catherine Nevels and Nancy York.

Newton Evans being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

My name is Newton Evans; I live at Maxwell, Ala.; I was born in 1837 in Bledsoe Co., Tenn. I claim through my mother and her father and mother both. Mother died in 1887 and she was seventy-five years old when she died. She was born I think in East Tennessee; My grandparents came from either North or South Carolina. We lived up on Big Coon Mt. in Jackson Co. in what was called "the Nation", the Indian nation. I and my mother and my grandparents have always been recognized as Indians- we have always lived with the white people. They wouldn't let us vote before the war on account of our Indian blood, and wouldn't let us children go to school.

My great-grandmother Nellie Evans was a full blood Cherokee Indian. My mother and grand-parents lived around where there were both white people and Indians. When the Indians went from North Carolina they came by where my mother and grand-parents lived and recognized them as Indians and relations and wanted the men folks to go with them, but my grand-parents and parents owned land there and property and did not want to go away and leave the county and state made my grand-parents and parents pay heavy taxes for the property which they owned. My mother nor grand-parents never got any money or land from the government on account of their Indian blood- they were never enrolled- none of them that I ever heard of- if they had been my grandmother would have known about it for she was very old and recollected back way far. In 1851 my mother and I lived in Jackson Co.; we were not enrolled at that time because we were poor people and could not afford it- in 1882 I was living in Jackson Co. also and was not enrolled at that time because the fee was high and we was afraid that we could be sent to the Nation.

I never heard of my grandfather taking any part in Cherokee tribal matters. I have heard of the treaty of 1835- that was when the Indians came through on their way out west. My grandfather nor grandmother never had anything to do with the treaty that I know of.

Appl. #24484

Andrew Chavers, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:
My name is Andrew Chavers. I live at Anderson, Tenn.
I was born in 1830 in Campbell County, Tenn. As far back as I can remember I lived with the white people. I claim through both my father and my mother. My parents were recognized as Indians. I don't think my father voted. He has voted since the Civil War, but I don't recollect him doing it before. I never heard of my mother and father ever taking part in tribal matters. I was born in the white community.
White people lived all around us. I never got any money or land from the Govt, and I never heard of my father and mother getting any on account of their Indian blood. I never heard of them being enrolled. I always heard that they were Cherokee

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS, EASTERN CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT,
601 OURAY BUILDING,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of recent date relative to the Eastern Cherokee enrollment, you are advised that since filing my report of May 28, 1909, with the Court of Claims, the matter has passed entirely beyond my control.

My report sets forth why, in my opinion, the claims admitted should be admitted and those rejected should be rejected. The matter now rests with the Court and the only way that my decision can be reviewed is by filing exceptions in accordance with the order of the Court of June 10, 1909.

No blank forms will be furnished for the filing of these exceptions.

Under the order of the Court of Claims of April 29, 1907, it was necessary for claimants to file an application prior to August 31, 1907, and to prove that they were Eastern Cherokee Indians by blood, descended from Indians who were recognized parties to the Treaties of 1835-6, and 1846, and to further prove that they were not Old Settler Cherokees, and that they, or their immediate ancestors, had not since the Treaty of 1846 affiliated with any tribe or band of Indians other than the Cherokee Nation.

The application about which inquiry is made in your letter was rejected because the claimant failed to bring himself within these requirements.

Very respectfully,

GUION MILLER,

Special Commissioner.

App. #24500.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of January 30, 1910, you are advised that children born after May 28, 1906, are not entitled to share in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, and your minor child, Robert Lee Harrison, would therefore not be entitled.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.
